

Writing articles for publication
LILAC 2007: Sheila Webber

1. What do you want to write about? (subject area or specific topic)

2. What format do you want to publish in, and where do you want to publish? (Format e.g. journal article, book, weblog. Where e.g. Academic journal, professional journal – is there a specific title?)

3. Why do you want to publish?

4. What is hindering you from writing and publishing at the moment?

4a. Are there things that your employer is doing (or not doing) that are hindering you?

4b. Are there other things which are hindering you?

5. What could be done to help you write and publish?

5a. What could you do personally?

5b. What could your employer do?

5c. What could CILIP (or other professional association or network that you belong to) do?

5d. Any specific suggestions for what can be done at LILAC?

6. Is there any piece of advice that you could pass on, that has helped you to write or publish?

7. Is there one action you can take away from this session?

What is the next thing that you are going to write about?
